THE BLUES AT THE BURBINE DISC GOLF TOURNAMENT SET TO WELCOME COMPETITORS FROM ACROSS THE REGION AND BEYOND

- WHAT: Seventy-two-disc golfers from across the region and beyond will tee off for the annual "Blues at Burbine" disc golf tournament on Sunday, October 26. Registration for the two-round, 36-hole tournament begins at 7:45 a.m. at the Burbine Forest Disc Golf Course in the town of Charleston, with disc golfers teeing off in a shotgun start at 9 a.m.
- Opened in 2020, the Burbine Forest Disc Golf Course is in Montgomery County's Thomas H. Burbine Memorial Forest. The course has become increasingly popular, and the annual tournament has attracted a growing following. This is the fifth year Montgomery County Tourism has co-hosted the event.
- Along with Montgomery County, "The Blues at Burbine" is co-hosted by DisCap, the Capital Region's disc golf club. Other local businesses supporting the event include Bellinger's Orchard and Eisenadler Brahaus.
