A local law establishing a county planning board for the County of Montgomery
(Insert title)

Be it enacted by the Board of Supervisors of the (Name of Legislative Body)

County
~~City~~ of Montgomery as follows:
~~Town~~
~~Village~~

SECTION 1. Pursuant to the provisions of Article twelve-b of the General Municipal Law of the State of New York, there is hereby established a Montgomery County Planning Board.

SECTION 2. The county planning board shall consist of fourteen members, to be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Montgomery County with the consent of the Board of Supervisors. The following officers of the County of Montgomery shall be ex-officio members of such planning board, namely, the county superintendent of highways and the county treasurer.

The respective terms of the members of the planning board first appointed shall be as follows: four shall hold office for a term of one year, four for a term of two years and six for a term of three years. Thereafter, their successors shall be appointed for a term of three years. In the event a vacancy occurs other than by expiration of the term, it shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

SECTION 3. The Montgomery County Planning Board shall have the following powers and duties:

1. The board shall annually elect from its own members a chairman and vice-chairman and may from time to time elect such other officers of said board as it deems necessary.

2. Adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement its own procedures and organizations.

3. Formulate and recommend to the Board of Supervisors major development policies in the form of statements, plans, maps and other appropriate material to serve as reference guides with the object of achieving a physical development of the county that will be orderly, harmonious, economically sound and of attractive appearance. Such policies shall relate, among other things, to: land use, population density, transportation facilities, including roads and highways, park, recreation areas, and other open spaces, community appearance and public buildings.

4. To advise the board of supervisors with respect to any subject falling within the policies herein enumerated, and with respect to any matter relating to the physical development of the county.

5. In addition to the powers and duties set forth herein, the Montgomery County Planning Board shall have and is vested with all the powers, authority and responsibilities provided in section 239-d of article twelve-b of the General Municipal Law.

SECTION 4. The Board of Supervisors of Montgomery County is hereby authorized to appropriate and raise by taxation money for the expenses of the Montgomery County Planning Board; and the County of Montgomery shall not be chargeable with any expense incurred by such planning board except pursuant to such an appropriation.

The members of the planning board shall receive no salary or compensation for their services as members of such board, but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

SECTION 5. This local law shall take effect upon its adoption and the filing of one certified copy thereof with the county clerk, one certified copy in the office of the State Comptroller and three certified copies in the office of the Secretary of State.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY
COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH
BOARD

County Court House,
Fonda, New York 12068
May 15, 1967

The Hon. Raymond Dybas,
Chairman, Montgomery County
Board of Supervisors
New County Office Bldg.
Fonda, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that as of May 18, it will no longer be possible for me to serve on the County Community Mental Health Board since I have been appointed by our Resident Bishop to a Parish that is not within the bounds of Montgomery County and will therefore no longer be a resident of the County. I am sorry that this had to take place at this particular time, but these are things beyond our control. I have enjoyed working with the very fine Board which we have had and am sure that they will continue to accomplish the purpose for which they have been appointed.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

J. Russell Bales
